Thought Provoking Quote

“Faith
SEES the invisible,
BELIEVES the unbelievable,
and RECEIVES the impossible.”

Corrie ten Boom

“And
you hath he quicken, who were dead in trespasses and sins.”

SPECIAL FEATURES
NEWS & EVENTS

It happened! Last Sunday, about seventy (70) persons—including one (1) guest—attended the first service marking the reopening of the Tabernacle for public worship.

The worshippers—with their face coverings in place—made adoring responses to the Lord. The atmosphere was somewhat spiritually electric. Pastor's message was on point. Using the theme, "From Chaos to Covenant," he stressed that sin, which is the root cause of chaos, can be addressed by the New Covenant in which the Lord writes His laws in our hearts.

Today is the second Sunday of our resumption. "FOCUS ON JESUS," is the theme that will demand our attention. The last four months have brought to us many challenges. COVID-19 has provided unprecedented pain and dislocations.

Think of it. At the time of writing, there were 17,639,185 cases and 680,575 deaths globally. There were 4,579,761 cases and 153,642 deaths in the United States of America. When you add to this the resulting economic social crises, arising out of widespread job losses, there can be no doubt that millions of people have been called upon to travel a new and difficult path.

Traveling a new and difficult path calls for unswerving focus on Jesus. Peter's miraculous walk on the water was the outcome of his focus on Jesus. That miraculous walk ceased only when his focus on Jesus ceased. (Matthew 14:28-31)

Today, let us seize the opportunity to sharpen our focus on Jesus. He is the supernatural designer and finisher of our faith. (Hebrews 12:1-2) So, He will see us through—no matter the intensity of life's raging storms.
