THOUGHT PROVOKING

“The Resurrection is at the core of our beliefs as Christians.
Without it, our faith is meaningless.”

Today—in a very special way—we are celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The relevant Biblical text is significant. “He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.” (Matthew 28:6)

These were the words that fell on the ears of Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Salome when they visited the sepulcher, armed with sweet spices to anoint the body of Jesus.

Why is the resurrection of Jesus significant and, therefore, worthy of celebration? Consider this. The resurrection provides that:

- Human beings can be saved or delivered from the power and the effects of sin. (Romans 1:16)
- Human beings can be kept saved. (1 Peter 1:4-5; 2 Timothy 1:12)

- Human beings can be raptured (caught away) at the return of Jesus for His church. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-17)

Salvation, as provided by Jesus, becomes actual when there is a positive response by individuals. Scripture makes it plain that the gospel of Christ is “the power of God to everyone that believeth.” (Romans 1:16)

The positive responses by individuals thrive in a climate established by the “3 D’s” model, that being desire, discipline and determination. Desire is the want to. Discipline is a sense of order and control to devise a plan for the realization of what is desired. Determination is the resolve, grit and fortitude to press on to the end.

Let's CELEBRATE!

EASTER

*Let every heart be filled with joy,
A joy of thankfulness to our Savior and King!*

*He is victorious over sin and death.
He conquered death to give us a new life.*

*A life blossoms through His unending love.
It is for a cause and without condition
The love that brings healing and reconciliation,
A pure love that creates in us real peace.*

*Peace that springs from His sacred heart,
A heart that bleeds for our affliction.
It is full of mercy and compassion,
A heart wounded for our sins and vainglory.*

*Rejoice! Jesus is truly risen from the dead
For us to live once again,
To live without blemish of pride,
And live a life unselfishly for others in need.*
