A SPECIAL P E A L

Please:

1. Express kindness to each other by wearing a mask.
2. Remember that social distancing, which is a requirement, demands that we greet each other with radiant eyes, a smile, and gestures such as hand on heart.
3. Remember to get a test for the COVID-19 virus, as a matter of urgency.

Billy Graham

THOUGHT PROVOKING

"A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society."

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

2 TIMOTHY 4:7

Chronicle Express

And, ye fathers, provoke not
your children to wrath:
but bring them up
in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

~ EPHESIANS 6:4

Greetings ANAT Family and Friends!

⁴¹Oh, give thanks to the LORD,
for He is good!

²⁶Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven!
For His mercy endures forever.”

~Psalm 136, NKJV

What other greeting could be more fitting than to invite you to join me in offering wholehearted thanksgiving to our merciful Heavenly Father. We have been unworthy beneficiaries of our Holy Father's loving kindness and tender mercies during this pandemic season. While we share in grieving lost family members and close associates, no ANAT member is included in the to-date 24,661 COVID related deaths in New York State. This alone is cause enough to rejoice and give thanks.

Today is globally recognized as Father's Day, so it is only right that we first give the highest accolades to the Father of fathers. Proverbs 17:6 states, “...the glory of children is their fathers” (ESV). While this was a tribute to exemplary earthly fathers, Father's Day presents us with another excellent opportunity to demonstrate to God that, as His children, we deem it our greatest honor to call Him, Abba.

To my fellow fathers, I celebrate you and equally challenge you to be a father after God's own heart. As your children honor you today, please renew your commitment to your heavenly Father that your children will testify that, “We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.” (Psalm 44:1)

Father's Day Greeting

Raymond Smith

MEN'S MINISTRY PRESIDENT

Fathers, we celebrate you today for being who you are. You have committed yourself to raising children to be respectable adults by teaching and actively modeling what you taught.

As provider and priest, you have answered the call to work hard and long, lead in spiritual matters—all in an effort to effectively nurture sons and daughters who will play leading roles in impacting their generation in a positive way.

These are unprecedented times. So, I encourage you to continue to be strong and resilient. We can do so because of God's empowerment.

The social, emotional, and spiritual development of our children is of great importance. We must, therefore, be unwaveringly committed to giving priority attention to this development so that our homes, churches, and communities may prosper.

Fathers, you are special!
