

APOSTOLIC DAY OF PRAYER, FRIDAY, MARCH 27

The Apostolic Fellowship Summit is calling all Apostolic Pentecostals to prayer for our nation on Friday, March 27. The Summit is an annual meeting of the seven largest Oneness Pentecostal organizations in the United States, hosted by Urshan Graduate School of Theology.

Leaders of these organizations will pray together on Friday, March 27, at Noon (Eastern) via Zoom. Prayer will be focused on each organization, our nation, and the world. This time of prayer will also be livestreamed on the UPCI Facebook page.

Participating organizations of the AFS are the Apostolic Assembly of the Faith in Christ Jesus, Assemblies of the Lord Jesus Christ, Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ, International Bible Way Church, Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Pentecostal Churches of the Apostolic Faith, and the United Pentecostal Church International.

The Global Council of the UPCI is also calling all its member churches to prayer on this day.

The ANAT family is encouraging you to participate via live-stream on UPCI Facebook page.
