Thought Provoking

There is a simple reason you can't walk on water. Humans are so big that the force of gravity overcomes the so-called surface tension of water, making us sink. Last week's message indicated that Jesus walked on water — the boisterous waves of the sea. Responding positively to Jesus' invitation to the miraculous, contained in the word, "COME," Peter — with his focus on Jesus — walked on the water also. His walk ceased only when his focus on Jesus ceased.

FOCUS ON JESUS ALWAYS!

“And Peter answered and said, Lord if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. ²⁹ And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.”

MATTHEW 14:28-29

SPECIAL FEATURES
NEWS & EVENTS

This is the third Sunday of our resumption of worship here at ANAT. We are so glad that you have chosen to share with us today's worship experience.

The story regarding last Sunday's service, makes for an interesting read. While the number of worshippers fell from seventy (70) to sixty-seven, (67) the guest population grew from one (1) to two (2).

And what is even more exciting is the fact that one of our guests was baptized in the name of Jesus and received the Holy Ghost before leaving the pool. Hallelujah!

Today, we are expecting to see at work the supernatural hand of our Lord. Indeed, it is expected that three (3) of our children who received the Holy Ghost in April and June will be baptized in the name of Jesus.

"A MAN CALLED JESUS." is the theme on which we shall focus. The Biblical text is John 9. The story covers a man who was born blind, and who was miraculously healed by Jesus. This is how Jesus did it. He spat on the ground and made clay. After putting the clay on the man's eyes, He instructed him to go to the pool of Siloam and wash. The man obeyed and returned with his sight.

Thereafter, the man was vigorously questioned by the Pharisees as to who or what accounted for his being able to see. His answer appears in verse 11 of the text. "A man called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight."

There are so many wonderful things about Jesus. Three of these can be identified in the text. Jesus Christ makes! Jesus Christ anoints! And Jesus Christ instructs.

Naturally, the outcome is always glorious!
